Code for American Youth in Central High School

1. I realize that, as an American, I am a guest not only in a foreign country but on an American base.
2. I will conduct myself in such a manner as to reflect credit on myself, my parents, my school and my Country.
3. As a member of a select group, I realize that my efforts are part of a common endeavor, and I will -
 - a) attempt to understand and appreciate the culture and environment of the country in which I am a guest;
 - b) try not to believe that because something is different, it is inferior;
 - c) dress appropriately at all times, in good taste. I realize my responsibility to represent my country in a proper manner;
 - d) support my school in its activities and help it to grow and improve in every possible way.
